

The National Association of Credit Management Honors NACM Midwest–Omaha

June 30, 2009: Columbia, Maryland—The National Association of Credit Management has recognized NACM Midwest–Omaha, as the Group Three Membership Award Winner for fiscal year 2008. NACM Midwest–Omaha was honored during NACM-National’s 113th Annual Credit Congress, which was held in Orlando, Florida, June 14-17.

NACM Midwest–Omaha is among the 46 NACM Affiliates located throughout the United States and in Puerto Rico that provide targeted, cost-effective receivables management services for credit and finance professionals. These services include credit reports covering both businesses and owners; collections resources; credit industry groups; and solutions for creditors working with financially distressed businesses, such as out-of-court arrangements, compromise settlements and liquidation. NACM Midwest–Omaha partners with fellow NACM Midwest locations in Chicago and Milwaukee.

As an award winner, NACM Midwest–Omaha sustained the highest net positive growth in members among like-sized affiliates. Lillian Novak, director of education, marketing and membership, accepted the honor on behalf of the affiliate.

All NACM Affiliates are grouped together by membership size for record-keeping purposes. Membership statistics are tracked by group, and awards are presented to those affiliates that have shown the most significant growth during the past calendar year.

Representatives from NACM Midwest–Omaha will be among the attendees at the 2009 NACM Central Region Credit Conference, which will be held in Indianapolis, Indiana, September 10-11. For more information about this annual regional gathering, please contact the NACM-National Meetings Department (410-740-5560).
