

The National Association of Credit Management Honors NACM Southern Group

June 30, 2009: Columbia, Maryland—The National Association of Credit Management has recognized NACM Southern Group, its affiliate in Birmingham, Alabama, as the Group Two Membership Award Winner for 2008. NACM Southern Group was honored during NACM-National's 113th Annual Credit Congress, which was held in Orlando, Florida, June 14-17.

NACM Southern Group is among the 46 NACM Affiliates located throughout the United States and in Puerto Rico that provide targeted, cost-effective receivables management services for credit and finance professionals. These services include credit reports covering both businesses and owners; collections resources; credit industry groups; and solutions for creditors working with financially distressed businesses, such as out-of-court arrangements, compromise settlements and liquidation. NACM Southern Group serves the diverse needs of companies throughout Alabama and the Florida Panhandle.

As an award winner, NACM Southern Group sustained the highest net positive growth in members among like-sized affiliates. Pam Taylor, affiliate president, and Regina Hinton Neumann, CBA, a former chairman of the NACM Southern Group Board of Directors, accepted the honor on behalf of the organization.

All NACM Affiliates are grouped together by membership size for record-keeping purposes. Membership statistics are tracked by group, and awards are presented to those affiliates that have shown the most significant growth during the past calendar year.

Representatives from NACM Southern Group will be among the attendees at the 2009 All South Conference, which will be held in Tampa, Florida, October 21-23. For more information about this annual regional gathering, please contact the NACM-National Meetings Department (410-740-5560) or visit the All South Conference website (www.nacmtampa.com/all_south2009.asp).
