14TH ANNUAL NACM SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

GOLF OUTING

Sunday, May 19 • 6:30am–2:00pm • $159 per person

The NACM Scholarship Foundation has the pleasure of hosting its 2019 Golf Outing at the Green Valley Ranch Golf Club in Aurora. The Green Valley Ranch Golf Club is home to an award-winning, 18-hole championship course designed by Perry Dye. It is considered the finest full-range practice facility in Colorado and has received several honors from magazines, such as Golf Digest and Golf Week. With exquisite views of the Rocky Mountain Front Range, Green Valley Ranch hosts the Colorado Opens. In addition to a relaxing round of golf and breathtaking scenery, NACM Golf Outing participants will enjoy a post-event lunch and award ceremony. The outing fee covers transportation to and from the course, greens fees and lunch.

Expo 2019 showcases service providers representing diverse and unique companies from the United States and abroad. These companies unveil their products and services demonstrating how they may be essential resources to credit professionals in performing their daily responsibilities effectively and efficiently.

Our Expo showcases products, services and solutions relating to:

- Banking and financial services
- Credit insurance
- Customer financial information analysis
- Deductions management
- National credit reporting
- Outsourcing
- Receivables
- Software
- UCC-related services and more

Our exposition is the largest gathering of business credit and financial management service providers in the nation. Don't miss this opportunity to speak one-on-one and see on-site product demonstrations from our exhibitors. The Expo experience is also designed to provide time for delegates to network with fellow credit professionals from across the country and internationally.
